This completely reconstructed historic wooden house stands on one of the most beautiful Czech squares with a park, a fountain, and a wide promenade. The property enables an advantageous combination of living and business in Bělá pod Bezdězem, a city surrounded by a beautiful landscape and at the same time within convenient driving distance from Prague.

The ground floor consists of one room with a window, accessible from the street, and another adjoining room. On the first floor is a living room, a kitchen, a bedroom, and a bathroom. The attic consists of 1 room and a free space open with access to the roof. In the courtyard is an extension, which has a workshop and a warehouse on the ground floor, and a separate studio apartment with a balcony on the upper floor.

The history of the wooden town house with a half-timbered floor dates back to the 15th century. The house was renovated in 2019–2023, including electricity and water distribution (the roof was replaced in 1995 and is newly insulated). Windows are wooden casement; floors are wooden and tiled. Heating is provided by 3 air-conditioning units, a wood-burning fireplace, and electric direct heaters. There is an elevator in the annex.

A unique location in the city's heritage zone with a beautiful park and narrow cobbled streets. There are shops and businesses in the immediate vicinity, and cafes, restaurants, a kindergarten and elementary school, a post office, and a sports field are close-by. Complete civic amenities can be found in nearby Mladá Boleslav, to which Bělá pod Bezdězem has an excellent bus connection. The drive by car to the outskirts of Prague takes 45 minutes. The small town is surrounded by the beautiful nature of the Kokořínsko – Mácha's Region PLA, made up of vast forests and rock formations.

Usable area approx. 332 m², built-up area 205 m², garden 158 m², plot 363 m²
